Why was Sanctuary chosen to be the primary title of the book? Did your understanding of a Sanctuary change after reading the story?

How does the secondary title, A Legacy of Memories, tie into the main title and the story?

How does the front cover reflect the crux of the story and the themes in the book? Did the image help you to understand the story? Why? If not, why not?

What was unique about Shiloh as the primary setting? Did the description of Shiloh enhance or take away from the story? Could Shiloh have been any rural town in America? How so? Why not?

Since choices have consequences in life, what did you think about the following key characters and their actions and attitude in the story:

- + John Priestly
- + Megan Archer
- + Hank Archer
- + Harold Archer
- + Hal Archer
- + Theo Phillips
- + Liddy Phillips
- + Arnie Wright
- + Jeannie Simmons

Did the characters and situations they faced seem real and believable? Can you relate to their predicaments? To what extent do they remind you of yourself or someone you know?

Which characters demonstrated the most noticeable change and evolution to you throughout the story? Which ones did you most identify with?

Were you left wanting to know what happens now with the characters in Shiloh? Are you ready to read Testament, An Unexpected Return?

Will you recommend this book to a friend or family member?
